

Golf Ministry Marathon

... How many holes can Kurt play between sun up and sun down?

Dear friends,

On Tuesday January 16th 2007, I am going to attempt to play 100 holes (or more) of golf in a single day. What's more I will be undertaking this marathon at picturesque Oberon Golf Course - a fairly hilly course backing onto Oberon Dam. You may have heard of others playing 100 holes in a day in a golf marathon before. But unlike them, I will be playing without a golf cart and with a caddie - walking all the way and following the rules of golf.

Oberon Golf Course

You might think I am a bit crazy to do this, but I am attempting it because I am passionate about helping the Christian Golf ministry: Links Sports Chaplaincy Australia. In fact, if you knew the positive impact that Links SCA is having through its work you'd probably want to help too!

By sponsoring me for each hole of golf I play in the golf marathon you too can help make a substantial difference in the lives of many people through Links SCA. What's more - 100% of the funds raised go directly to help Links SCA and all contributions are tax deductible.

I have already sponsored myself $2.00 per hole, and I'd love you to sponsor me what ever you can per hole. During the Golf Ministry Marathon there will be regular updates and pictures posted on the Links website (www.slmlinks.com.au) - so you can follow my progress.

Thanks in advance for helping Links Sports Chaplaincy Australia. You can read more about their work at www.slmlinks.com.au

Please fill out the sponsorship form below and send it or fax it to LINKS.

Regards,
Kurt Stegbauer - P.G.A. Member, Director Sutherland Shire Golf Academy (www.ssga.net.au)
